Uncle Jer Jerry Percio

Jerry Percio is comedian, actor, writer and award winning novelty song writer who has been featured on Comedy Central, TNT, NBC, The Lifetime Network and in ad campaigns for Diet Coke and Pepsi, as well as numerous local commercials. Some of his work can be heard regularly on the All-Comedy Radio Channel and Dr. Demento's syndicated program. He has written for Jay Leno, Rick Dees and others. He is an incredible mimic whose voices are referred to as re-creations rather than impressions. He is the three-time winner of the Music City Song Festival and is an honorary member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame's Founders Club in Cleveland

When asked if he is funny and talented his reply is,
"I haven't had a job since March of '84....I must be doing something right."

The BernMan Bernie Prussing

Bernie Prussing mixes humor, comedy, and song in his stage appearances and presents himself as the Marty Feldman look-alike with a guitar. As with Marty, you can't tell which of Bernie's eyes is looking at you, unless he tells you. He is a regular troubadour and entertainer for The Three-Stones Group's discussion series and various corporate sponsored programs. He is based in Seattle and conducts stage acts throughout the State of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia on a full time basis.

Bernie Prussing has been performing for over 20 years, bringing the spirit of the Emerald Isle, everywhere he plays.
